*My salutations
to that divine teacher, who is like the sun who encourages the lotus to bloom
... The one who has blessed us with the eternal wealth of liberating knowledge which dries up the endless ocean of seeking and sorrows.*

I can always love you and bless you, and see you in the wholeness of life—
wherever you are,
at all times.

Final words of blessing offered by Roy Eugene Davis online to seminar group at CSE on Saturday, March 23, 2019.

To our brothers and sisters:

We were saddened to learn of the passing of your beloved teacher. Not on his behalf, however. Roy gave his whole life, down to his very last week, not only to seeking God—something rare enough to find in this world—but also to sharing selflessly and tirelessly with others the spiritual bounty with which he'd been blessed. It is a life deserving of great honor. And of his well-earned graduation into higher realms.

You've had the blessing of receiving his spiritual training: many of you, we imagine, for the greater part of your lives. And so he's prepared you well for this moment. You know from him also that, no longer bound by his body, he's free now to help you in ways he couldn't before. His guru, Paramhansa Yogananda, when asked whether his disciples could call upon him even after he left his body, replied, "To those who think me near, I will be near." This is the truth not only for an avatar.

As you continue to hold Roy in your thoughts and your heart, may you feel his listening presence, and his response, when you need it most.

We know from our own experience (when our teacher left this world six years ago) what a difficult, even heartbreaking, time this can be. On behalf of all of us at Ananda, we offer you our condolences. We have been praying for Roy, that his soul soar in freedom. And praying for all of you, that you feel God's comforting touch in your heart in the days and weeks ahead. May you draw support also from your fellow community members in carrying on the work that Roy has now entrusted to you: in your own divine search, and in sharing with others who stand in such need now of what you have to give.

In divine friendship,

Nayaswamis Jyotish and Devi

Rev. Masaharu Taniguchi, Founder of Seicho-No-Ie, gave him a title of Seicho-No-Ie Honorary Minister, recognizing and admiring his deep understanding on the Truth. Mr. Davis wrote a book "Miracle Man of Japan" for him and his activity, and we, Seicho-No-Ie, published some books by him in Japanese. Our Founder invited him to Japan for his lectures in several main cities in 1964.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the International New Thought Alliance, we send a blessing of love, and yet also, a blessing of knowing what we know about the eternal journey of Roy Eugene Davis.

Over the years Roy has been such a blessing to our organization, serving on the Board for many terms and over the years blessing our summer Congress with his presence and insight. He is and will be remembered by many.

As I sign this letter and add a special blessing from me. I will always refer to Roy as an is, never a was or any use of the past tense for Roy Eugene Davis is an is ... continuing to unfold and be of service.

I met Roy in 1976 in Oklahoma City through my teacher and received kriya from Roy. We are so blessed to have had these devoted teachers in our lives that we should cherish like great jewels. I have been practicing Kriya ever since and cannot imagine what life would be without knowing these teachers and these teachings. God-bless everyone whom Roy has touched.

In light and love

You will be forever be remembered by those fortunate to practice Kriya Yoga with you.

Your life was an example of how dedication to God, purity of mind and heart can inspire others to live the same. And, in doing so we are of useful service to the soul and humanity.

"May the purity of your essence of being continuously illumine your mind and body, clarify your awareness, inspire creative thoughts, enliven your constructive actions and liberate your consciousness."

ROY, THE LAST APOSTLE

The full moon shining on a cloudless night, enlightens our steps on the arduous path of the Spirit. It does this with clarity and trust, with joy and firmness; but now the moon is sinking on the horizon and slowly disappears from our sight, beyond the hills, leaving us in a deep and lonesome sadness, but at the same time with a hidden hope: that it might reappear, there behind the morning mist.

Now I feel that if the moon should not reappear, its invisible presence would keep on shining in our hearts, leading us to the end of the path, to our Supreme Goal.

Roy Eugene Davis was a miracle in our lives. With the blessings of Paramahansa Yogananda and all the Masters of Kriya Yoga, he manifested and lived Truth. Not only the teachings, meditations, and the principles for life that Roy gave us, but he also showed us the divine presence that was incarnate in him. He gave by sharing his memories with his clear and wise words, with his deep insight and his sweet smile, and above all, his simplicity and humbleness. He lived a life of unceasing service; he was tirelessly open, full of enthusiasm, and happy to share the miracle that the divine presence of Yogananda meant to his life. That divine presence created a total and deep transformation that changed him from a boy born in Ohio into an apostle of India and Yoga.

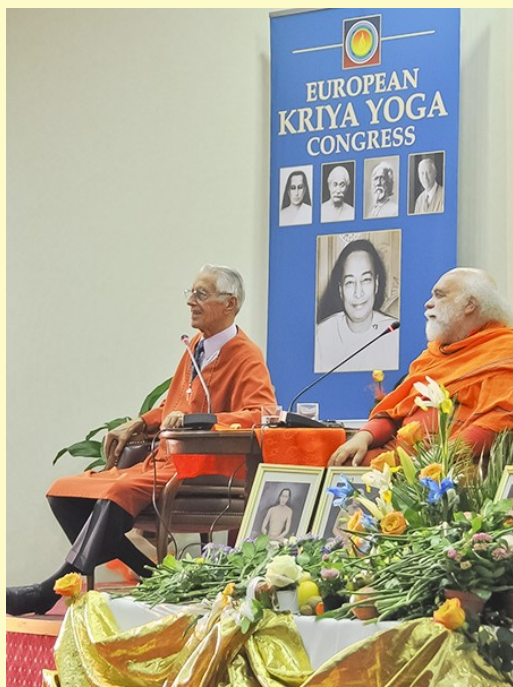

And that same transformation, he offered to each one of us, always encouraging everyone at every meeting, always ready to sustain us, helping us with the same words that Yogananda said to him: “Don’t look back, don’t look to the right and to the left, but look always ahead, in front of you and go to the end, you can succeed and reach the spiritual goal in this life.” And, with the same strength and firmness, we can always feel that encouragement in our hearts, where his life will never cease nor set.

I want to call you, Roy, as Yoganandaji called you, with the same familiarity that you showed us, with your heart completely open, the same heart that was His own heart.

Thank you Roy, Pranam,
Swami Nirvanananda

*“May Thy love shine forever on the sanctuary

able to awaken Thy love
in all hearts.”*

I offer you dear

Royji

my heart my devotion

and my steadfastness

on the Path

I remember the times I would attend the summer retreats at CSA and at the end of the week we would have the Kriya Yoga initiation ceremony. I remember waiting in line as I approached Roy and as I prepared to offer my fruit and flower as I approached him. I would be in a meditative mood as I chanted inwardly Om Namaya Shivaya. Then, Guruji would take my right hand in his in a kind of handshake as he placed his other hand on my forehead to bestow his blessing. I remember the warmth and softness of his hand on my forehead and how, just for a moment, I was more intensely in tune with the guru line. And that feeling would stay with me for the rest of my time at CSA and even as I would go to the Atlanta airport to fly home. I wish I could have had one more time with him to feel his warm hand again on my forehead and receive his blessing once more.

—Scott Willis

Paramguruji,

You were the first to initiate me during the ceremony after I took my first Living the Eternal Way class at CSE.

I still hold dear the initiation card that you gave me on that day twenty years ago. Your matter of fact way of teaching touched me and I came to see you whenever you were in the area. Between you and my guru, Umaji, I was filled with love, teachings, and wisdom of the teachings and the meaning of life. I grieve that I may never see you physically again, but know that you are with me, with us, forever in spirit.

Namaste.

I met Roy Eugene Davis in March of 2005 when I received initiation to Kriya Yoga for the first time at CSE Center. Roy, the purity, resilience and power in your presence is ever shining in my heart which was reminded of it's Divine nature that day. I bow to the illumined teachers and teachings of this great lineage. We are so blessed that you shared so freely and abundantly with us and provided a path to follow. Nurtured by the Teachings of Roy Eugene Davis

I have been fortunate to have visited Roy Eugene Davis's retreat center in Georgia a couple of times. On my first visit, a large storm, the tail end of a hurricane, had just passed by, and it was a warm summer. It was the perfect condition for a "mushroom bloom" which I had never before witnessed. Over the course of the week, I saw 20 or more different varieties of mushrooms, from the tiniest ones – as small as my littlest fingernail, to translucent ones which sprouted only for a morning and were gone by the afternoon, to ones that kept growing and growing throughout the week, as if they were a loaf of bread slowly rising. They came in an infinite variety of color and sizes. There were pink ones, black ones, brown, orange, red, tan and purple ones. All of this potential lying just beneath the surface, waiting until just the right combination of moisture and warmth released the energy, and then the bloom was on!

Through exploring the teachings of Kriya Yoga provided by Mr. Davis, I have learned that we are just like that! Underneath the layers of the body and mind, is infinite potential, waiting for just the right combination of energies to unleash our divine Self, and allow it to express freely into the world.

Living within the atmosphere of Kriya Yoga practice has been the right conditions for me; and the teachings of Mr. Davis are like intense fertilizer, rich and dense with nutrients. I can contemplate a few of his written sentences for days, allowing the truth to be absorbed into my being, penetrating every part of me, down to the smallest cell, and awakening me to the truth; the divine potential that I am. I am extremely grateful for his wisdom, his generosity, and his lifetime of selfless service. Namaste, Royji.

Your light illumined many souls. Thank you for all your self-less service & love.

I first met and was initiated by Roy in 1977 in Denver at the Science of Mind Church. I can't believe it's been 42 years! I immediately experienced a huge awakening and feelings of many past lifetimes on this path. Roy asked me if I wanted to be a CSA minister. At the time, I didn't feel worthy and said I would think about it.

About six months later, I heard that Roy was returning to Denver and this incredible feeling of joy rushed into me. I made an appointment to meet with him and told him how mad I had been when I learned that Yogananda had died and didn't wait for me! I told Roy of my joy at his return and felt he was my guru. He asked me a few questions and then just simply said "Okay!"

Over the years, I traveled to see him as often as I could (even to England) and had several retreats and teacher seminars at CSA. Eventually, life swept me away into other pursuits though I always remained faithful to Roy and my practice.

Many blessings and love. Namaste.

INTERNATIONAL KRIYA YOGA CONGRESS

Holiness

- Kriya Yoga Congress -

We were all sitting in the hall waiting for the day's proceedings to start. Suddenly I was completely overcome with an indescribable experience that I can only describe as Holiness. It lasted only a few seconds but had it continued I don't know how I would have gotten out of my chair or function. I wondered what had just happened and why. I looked around the hall, searching for evidence of what was the cause of this occurrence and then I saw that Roy had just entered the hall at that time. I had been caught by (Margaret Caura) his fire.

I was initiated to Kriya Yoga by Ray in 2010. Within 5 months I was blessed to get to spend many many months at CSA. Ray's generous heart of love & light illuminated my mind and consciousness.
I am deeply honored and grateful to my guru Ray. My life will never be the same.

Thank you Ray... I will share your

Light and love with 'All' I love
You xoxo L
